If the implementation is easy to explain, it may be a good idea.

🎓 Education

2024–TBA PhD, Physical & Computational Chemistry, Department of Chemistry, University of Crete

2022–2024 MSc, Physical & Computational Chemistry, Department of Chemistry, University of Crete
9.86 (Excellent)

2018–2022 BSc, Chemistry, Department of Chemistry, University of Crete
8.64 (Excellent)

First of the class – obtained in 3.5/4.0 years

🎓 Master thesis

Title From Potential Energy Surface to Gas Adsorption via Deep Learning

Supervisor George E. Froudakis

Description Developing a deep learning based method for predicting gas adsorption in porous materials using 3D energy images.

🎓 Bachelor thesis

Title Screening of MOFs for H₂ Storage via Machine Learning

Supervisor George E. Froudakis

Description Developing a machine learning based method for fast screening of large databases, in order to identify top performing MOFs for hydrogen storage.

📣 Scholarships – Awards – Highlights

2025 Excellence Award "Professor Zoe Dimitriadis Prize", University of Crete

2025 Best MSc Thesis Award (3rd place), Federation of European Materials Societies

2025 Postgraduate Fellowship, Vasileios Apollon Anagnostakis Bequest Fellowship

2025 Best MSc Thesis Award (1st place), Hellenic Society for the Science and Technology of Condensed Matter

2025 Paper featured in Nature Portfolio Nobel Prize in Chemistry 2025. "Gas adsorption meets deep learning: voxelizing the potential energy surface of metal-organic frameworks"

2025 Paper ranked 9th in Scientific Reports 2024 Materials Science Top 100. "Gas adsorption meets deep learning: voxelizing the potential energy surface of metal-organic frameworks".

2024 Postgraduate Fellowship, Independent Power Transmission Operator S.A. Fellowship

2024 Postgraduate Fellowship, Maria Michail Manasaki Bequest Fellowship

- 2023 Chatzimarinaki Award, Department of Chemistry, University of Crete
2022 Undergraduate Scholarship, Stamatiou Foundation
2021 Undergraduate Scholarship, Stamatiou Foundation
2020 Undergraduate Scholarship, Stamatiou Foundation
